4. Deposits.—(1) Deposits may be made in cash only.
 (2) No account shall be opened with a deposit of less than rupees two.
 (3) No subsequent deposit shall be less than rupee one.

5. Mode of depositing money in Treasury Savings Bank.—(1) Any person wishing to open an account in a Treasury Savings Bank should apply to the nearest Treasury Savings Bank in index card in Form 1 duly filled in.

(2) For each deposit the depositor shall be granted a receipt in the pass book.

6. Withdrawal.—(1) No withdrawal shall be for a sum less than rupee one.

(2) No withdrawal shall be permitted which has the effect of reducing the balance to less than rupees five.

(3) To withdraw money, a depositor is required to present or send his pass book with an application for withdrawal in Form 2 duly filled in and signed.

7. Withdrawal from an account opened on behalf of a minor or a person of unsound mind.—Subject to the provisions of rule 6, a withdrawal shall be permitted during the minority or lunacy of the depositor on the guardian or the Superintendent of the mental hospital, as the case may be, furnishing a certificate in the following form:—

“Certified that the amount sought to be withdrawn is required for the use of who is a minor/a person of unsound mind/and who is alive this day.”

8. Interest.—(1) Interest at the rates notified by the Government of Mysore in the Mysore Gazette shall be allowed for each calendar month on the lowest balance at the credit of the account between the close of the sixth day and the end of the month.

Provided that—

(i) interest shall be allowed only on sums of complete rupees and shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of five paise and for this purpose any amount of 2.5 paise or more shall be treated as five paise and any amount less than 2.5 paise shall be ignored;
 (ii) no interest shall be allowed on an account for any month in which the balance at credit was below rupees ten at any time between the sixth and last date of the month.

(2) No interest shall be allowed on any single account, joint account or security deposit account on any sum exceeding rupees two lakhs.
